SITUATION

Blackhillock Steading Cottage is a charming, traditional cottage set in a peaceful and attractive, rural setting located to the south of the popular village of Rafford in Moray. The county is famous for its mild climate, has a beautiful and varied countryside with a coastline of rich agricultural land, prosperous fishing villages and wide open beaches. Nearby is the coastal town of Nairn (about 15.5 miles) with its two championship links golf courses. Located about 20 minutes' drive away is the 'jewel' of the Moray coastline, the historic village of Findhorn with its sheltered bay providing excellent sailing and water sports and highly regarded inns. The Culbin Forest, a short drive away with its marked walks and cycle trails, offers excellent opportunities for a wide range of outdoor pursuits. In addition, Forestry Commission trails near to the property would appeal to dog owners and walkers.

Forres (about 5.5 miles) provides a comprehensive range of shops and amenities whilst the surrounding area offers some excellent hotels, restaurants and historic local attractions. Schooling up to secondary level, including a Steiner School is available in Forres and also at Gordonstoun Independent School, about 17 miles away. Inverness (about 31 miles) has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport (about 25 miles) which offers regular flights to many major English cities and summer flights to many European destinations.

DESCRIPTION

Located in a fine rural setting between Rafford and Dallas, Blackhillock Steading Cottage enjoys a wonderfully remote, yet broadly accessible position with fine easterly views. Sitting adjacent to the main traditional farm steading, the cottage is built from rendered stone under a slate roof (with a part corrugated tin section) and likely dates from the late 1800's/early 1900's. In need of complete renovation, it presents buyers with an excellent opportunity to create a delightful, rural home in one of Moray's more sought after locations. The cottage currently provides accommodation over one and a half storeys including one reception rooms and two bedrooms. In addition, there are two attic rooms plus ancillary accommodation. Mains water and electricity are on site whilst foul drainage is to a private facility. Outside, there is a small, cleared area of garden.
