SITUATION

Kathannon Croft sits in a stunning semi-rural setting on the edge of the village of Edinville at the heart of Speyside and near the popular Speyside village of Aberlour. The village, about 3 miles away, has a supermarket, health centre, dental practice and pharmacy, a highly regarded delicatessen and various hotels, pubs and coffee shops. With easy access to the Spey, Cairngorms and Moray coastline, the area has a rich and diverse range of services and amenities and is becoming a haven for arts, cultural and social events with many new independent shops in the area.

Elgin (about 18 miles) is the principal town in the country and has a wide range of amenities including various major supermarkets, a library, a good selection of independent shops, various sporting and recreational facilities and a train station providing direct links to Aberdeen (60 miles) and Inverness (52 miles). Aberdeen and Inverness provide all of the facilities expected from modern and prosperous cities, with an excellent selection of shopping, retail parks and associated services, rail links and airports.

DESCRIPTION

Kathannon Croft is a very impressive house with wonderful views over Ben Rinnes. It appears to be in excellent condition and is tastefully decorated throughout. Constructed of harled block under a pitched tiled roof, it provides spacious, flexible and well-appointed accommodation over two storeys. Kathannon Croft has a lovely bright and airy atmosphere with large double glazed windows flooding the interior with natural light. The open plan kitchen/dining/living area with French doors to the patio and the triple aspect sitting room with vaulted ceiling and log burner are particularly appealing rooms. The house has many fine features including high quality kitchen and bathroom fittings, extensive storage space and a very flexible room layout. Kathannon Croft is heated from an air source heat pump, is connected to mains water and has private foul drainage.
