SITUATION

Fieldview sits in an attractive elevated south-east facing position with superb panoramic views overlooking the surrounding countryside towards the coast. The property is located in a private, but accessible, location with excellent transport links via the A1 trunk road, about 2 miles to the west, and Edinburgh can be reached in less than an hour. There are mainline East Coast stations at Dunbar and Berwick-Upon-Tweed which offer direct rail links to Newcastle, Edinburgh, and London which can be reached in three and a half hours from Berwick.

The picturesque Berwickshire villages of Cockburnspath and Coldingham are 4 miles and 7 miles respectively, whilst Dunbar and Eyemouth provide a wider range of services including supermarkets, shops, hotels and an array of restaurants. There are excellent educational facilities available with primary schools at nearby Cocksburnpath and Coldingham, the secondary schooling at Eyemouth High School and Dunbar Grammar.

DESCRIPTION

Fieldview is an attractive modern detached country house built in 2006 standing in a colourful garden. The property provides well-proportioned family living accommodation including a large kitchen to the rear and a sitting room and dining room to the front. The principal reception rooms are well proportioned and face south and east, benefiting from stunning views overlooking the surrounding countryside towards Siccar Point and The North Sea beyond.

The large loft space has the potential, subject to the necessary planning and building warrant consents, to extend the accommodation at the first level.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over a single floor and comprises:

3 reception rooms, kitchen, master bedroom, 3 further bedrooms, and bathroom.

GARDEN AND GROUNDS

The garden surrounds the house and provides an attractive back drop for the property. The garden ground has been tastefully landscaped, and is mostly laid to lawn to the north and east of the house and edged with herbaceous borders and shrubs providing a delightful mix of colour. The garden area is completely enclosed by Rylock fencing, and a gravel drive which, surrounds the house. Ample parking available.
