SITUATION

Ladyrig has an accessible rural location about 1 mile east of Heiton and about 3 miles from Kelso - one of the most sought after towns in the Scottish Borders. Ladyrig itself is a small settlement with a mix of attractive conversions and new build houses along with some more traditional farm cottages.

Heiton lies on the A698 Kelso to Jedburgh road and is a short walk from the River Tweed. The Schloss Roxburgh Hotel and Golf Course lie on the edge of the village.

Considered by many to be the most attractive of the Borders towns Kelso is noted particularly for its fine market square and for the remains of one of the great Border Abbeys. The town provides a good shopping centre together with an excellent range of social and sporting facilities including golf, bowls, tennis, swimming, curling, fishing and National Hunt racing. There is an impressive new high school on the northern edge of Kelso.

The town sits at the confluence of the River Tweed and the River Teviot and the surrounding countryside is noted for its scenic beauty. Kelso has good road links with the other principal towns in the Scottish Borders and there are railway stations at both Tweedbank (19 miles) and Berwick upon Tweed (28 miles).

DESCRIPTION

The site is fairly level and is bounded by a minor public road to its southwest. There are tremendous views of the surrounding countryside from the site.
